THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1905.

OUR GREAT INDUSTRY.

Hopkins county to the fore again and always. It is in the matter of industry of a particular kind that Hopkins county excels. It is the coal industry, the center of which is at Earlington, and which makes the entire people beneficiaries of the producing powers of the great collieries of Hopkins county.

Today, as is the annual custom, The Bee presents its readers with the first figures concerning the coal industry of the county for the year 1904, and the figures are heavy with proof of the importance to the county and the State of these splendid producers and distributors of wealth.

The wages paid to labor are good and constant, giving employment to some two thousand men and youths and direct support to about one-fourth of the county's population.

In the face of a loss in the county's output as compared with 1903, and the considerable gain in output of the Southeastern district, Hopkins county maintains its place as the producer of one-fourth of the entire coal output of Kentucky.

Those who are actually in contact with the business, and business men generally, appreciate these facts and know the value of the million of dollars in wages paid to labor annually and the large additional local expenditures for materials and supplies that must be had for a mining operation and which are always bought at home if produced here.

There are others who are not so well informed. They have not been to our mining towns and do not know the prosperity that rules generally in these towns. To these we extend a cordial invitation to visit Earlington and see for themselves and be convinced that the coal mines of Hopkins county are worth far more to the people of the county than any other one industry or business known to our people.

The Standard of procedure with Kentucky grand juries now-a-days is to indict the big oil trust some more. If they all stick Rockefeller will enrich more counties with fines paid than Carnegie has ever enlightened with free libraries.

Col. E. G. SERRÉ is an applicant for appointment as Collector of Internal Revenue for this district and is said to be out vigorously for the place. Col. Lige is one of the most widely known and popular Republicans in the State and has behind him a record of many years of unselfish service to his party. If anybody deserves the recognition of official appointment it is Col. Serré.

The progressive pushers of the wild west believe that advertising pays. A special Pullman train started Tuesday from Tulsa, Indian Territory, with 100 citizens and a daily newspaper plant on board to make a tour of fifteen days through six States, for the purpose of advertising the resources and the people of Indian Territory. The daily newspaper plant is to be in actual operation on board the train. An exhibition car shows the products of the territory.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

Hostler John Mullen, of Howell, stepped on a rusty nail last Friday in getting off an engine, inflicting a painful wound.

Brakenham J. F. Schwambach fell off a car at Mt. Vernon, Ill., Saturday in train 67. He was not disarmed from the fall, however, and worked through to Howell.

Mike Devney, machinist at Howell, has resigned.

Fireman H. C. Tornatta, of the St. Louis Division, has resigned.

The coal train between Mascoutah and E. St. Louis has been taken off.

J. L. Darnell, who has been watching the coal train engine all winter, at Mascoutah, Ill., has been started out as a fireman.

Fireman J. W. Porter is laid up with a broken knee cap.

Switchman Rosenmeier was slightly injured between two cars while switching in Howell yards Friday.

A western railroad recently discharged seven of its best engineers on short notice. Special agents had seen them enter saloons. Each of the engineers admitted that they had visited saloons, claiming, however, that they did not take anything to drink, but simply took something to smoke.

That made no difference with the railroad company. If they had only entered for the purpose of looking at the paintings or statuary, or listening a moment to the grinding of a graphophone or music box, the result would have been the same. What more than the railroads are doing could be done to advance the cause of temperance?

Thomas Walsh left last week for Redding, California, where he will spend sometime on business.

In attempting to climb to the top of the coal gate on the tank of engine 270 pulling train 93 Saturday, fireman J. W. Rogers fell off into the deck of the engine, striking his back on the fire door latch and injuring himself.

A. J. Bruning, foreman painter, is making an inspection trip over these divisions. He was at Guthrie recently, from which place he went to St. Louis.

Train 72 left Madisonville the other evening, with two passenger who evidently thought they were seated in a pig-pen—to judge from the way they covered the floor around their feet with tobacco juice. It is a well-known fact that such disregard for public decency has a tendency to spread disease. Some men will raise the window to expectorate and some will even swallow the juice rather than cover the floor, but these two gentlemen (?) cared to do neither. But let them beware. Every dog has his day. Since the Kentucky State Board of Health has adopted regulations which make spitting on the floor of any railway car or station a violation of law, punishable by fine and imprisonment, to be put into effect at an early date, such objectionable scenes will be eliminated. The people of Kentucky have about as much to rejoice over as the people of Indiana.

Edward Van Etten, vice president of the New York Central R. R., has an article in last week's Leslie's Weekly on "The Rate Question."

Jessie Wilson, known throughout the country as the railroad evangelist, is in Spencer, Indiana. No other person is doing as much effective work among railroad men.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is two dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be ward off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; B. T. Robinson, Morton Gap; Jno. N. Taylor, Earlington.

POLITICAL POINTS.

As evidence of his good will toward the South, President Roosevelt has offered, through Georgia Congressmen, to give a good federal position to the widow of Gen. John B. Gordon. She is being considered for postmaster at Atlanta.

John W. Langley, of Kentucky, disbursing clerk of the census office, is understood to be in line for a more lucrative position under the new administration. He is said to be the first man to propose Theodore Roosevelt for Vice President, which he did at the Philadelphia convention of 1896. In his capacity as a delegate he urged from the start the political expediency of placing the Rough Rider on the ticket. While Mr. Roosevelt did not care for the Vice Presidential nomination then, he formed a friendship for Mr. Langley that has not been broken.

NEBO NOTES.

Bro. King came Saturday to fill his regular appointment, but was called to Earlington on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Kavanah. He returned and preached at night.

D. C. Morrow and wife and Miss Robbie Hill went to Madisonville Monday.

The recent rain brought tobacco in order and farmers are busy stripping and delivering.

The hens, after being on a strike all winter, have resumed business and now nearly everyone that comes to town bring in various amounts from five to twenty dozen.

A wedding, after being postponed, at last occurred at the Rutherford house between Mr. William Lynch and Mrs. Florence Hibbs. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Downs, who in a few impressive words, pronounced them man and wife.

Judge W. Dorr, of Madisonville, paid our town a visit one day last week, returning the same day.

During the late rains a ditch that was used to drain Parrish's coal mine got stopped up, filling the mine with water. It will be several weeks before they can resume work.

Miss Tot Fike returned home Friday, after a visit of several days at Stanhope.

Mrs. Mattie Jackson went to Colton last week to nurse her aunt, Miss Mary Peyton.

Mr. Bill Roberts, who lives three miles west of here, found one of his best horses Sunday with the skin all torn off his breast and hanging loose, which he had to cut off. He had no idea how it was done as there was no sign in the stable or lot. The horse was a valuable one and we hope that he will soon be well.

Burnett McCoy, of the Stanhope country, was here Monday delivering tobacco.

A rumor reached Nebo last week that the roads were very muddy.

Mr. O'Bryan, of the Hustler, came to Nebo intending to only make a short call, but was so well pleased that he let the train leave him, and said the next morning he hoped the train would leave him again. What the attraction was we cannot say, unless it was the splendid fare at the Rutherford house.

Mr. Hodge began shipping tobacco last week.

Jimmie K. Kirkwood died Thursday, March 8th. He had been sick a long time and his death was expected.

Miss Mary Peyton, of Colton, was in Nebo.

Bad colds are very common here.

An effort is being made to establish another Rural Route from Nebo through a part of Webster county, via Vanderberg and Cox's store.

Mr. Reid's retirement has made necessary a reorganization of the Tribune staff. Mr. Lyman, long a member of the editorial staff, succeeds Mr. Reid. ASSIE CHADWICK GUILTY

Jury Convicts Defendant in Case of the Indictment.

Cleveland, O., March 12.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was found guilty of conspiracy to violate the United States banking laws by conspiring to procure the certification of checks on a national bank when there were no funds in the bank to her credit. She was found guilty on every count of the indictment upon which the jury was at liberty to judge her, seven in all. The original indictment contained 16 counts. Two of these were ruled out during the trial by Judge Taylor, and of the remaining 14, one-half charged her with securing the certification of checks without having the proper entries made on the books of the bank. Judge Taylor, in his charge, directed the jury to disregard these counts, and consider only the remaining seven, which related to the certification with no funds on deposit. On all of these the jury found against her.

Under the law she can be fined on each count not more than $10,000 nor imprisonment more than two years on each count. In speaking of the verdict, J. P. Dawley, Mr. Chadwick's senior counsel, said that it was not in accord with the terms of the indictments, and that the case would be taken to the court of appeals as soon as possible.

A SUGGESTION TO RUSSIAN CZAR

Make a Dramatic Appeal to the Nobles and the Zemstvos.

MAKE THEM SOLEMN PROMISES

Make a Stirring Appeal, Through Them, to the People to Loosely Rally and Co-operate in Pushing War to Successful End.

The council of war sanctioned by Emperor Nicholas is reported to have declared, yesterday, that the war must be carried forward. The all-important question of financial means, however, is said to have reached an solution. The financial being complicated by the reported decision of French capitalists not to recognize the loan recently offered by St. Petersburg. The possibility is regarded in St. Petersburg as to be that when Gen. Kuropatkin has completed the task of reorganizing what is left of his army he will be permitted to return to Russia, and that the command in Manchuria will be entrusted to Gen. Polkowsky. These war preparations were served under fire, Dr. Kropotkin, who has been reported the foremost of Russia's scientific soldiers.

St. Petersburg, March 15, 12:30 a. m. A bulletin out of the premises of the present situation has been suggested, namely, that Emperor Nicholas travel in state to the ancient capital of Moscow, summon the nobles and leading members of the zemstvos around him in the secret precincts of the Kremlin, frankly lay the situation before them, publicly pledge his word for the execution of the projected reform, make a stirring personal appeal through them to the people, and, loyally rally to the support of the Russian arms and co-operate in prosecuting the war to a successful termination.

Such a personal appeal from the sovereign undoubtedly would have a powerful effect throughout the country, and for the dynasty would have an advantage over the plan of submitting the question of peace or war to the zemstvos, which would be the newspapers are again urging.

The Novye Vremya, in a strong article headed "Pro our Movement," reviews the situation leading up to the defeat of the army in Manchuria, the grave nature of the internal trouble in Moscow, the bloody and senseless wars, Riga and Baku, the series of attempts upon individual representatives of the civil and military authority, the increasing loss of confidence in the non-Russian provinces, some of which are threatening to secede, and the general state of anarchy, as in Georgia.

Finland, the Novoe Vremya declares, is arming; Jews everywhere are fanning the flames of revolution; and the danger of the anarchy movement is increasing.

The article concludes: "There is no time to waste. The receipt is a forthright one, and nothing has been done. The assembly of representatives, which the zemstvos must meet at once, and the best form is that of the old zemsky sobor."

Criticism on the conduct of the war, which has been appearing in the newspapers, has been aggravated by Gen. Kuropatkin's defeat, and is now of the most outspoken character. It is generally admitted that the success of the war under the present regime, save trivially pointing out that the administration is unable to provide Vladimirskoy with coal, is supplying the Japanese fleet.

M. Kridloff, the press correspondent who was wounded at Orenburg, declares that the large, splendid Russian troops were decimated as much by the bureaucracy as by the Japanese.

THE RUSSIAN AT THE PANK.

They are bringing Order out of Chaos and Preparing for Next.

The Press, March 15.—As after the battle of Liao-yang the advance of the Japanese army against the new positions of the Russians at Tsien-i very slow. The leading columns are eight or ten miles southward, and in touch with the Russian van posts, but the operations at present are not serious. Field Marshal Kuropatkin's slight invention of pressing his advantage in an immediate attack on Tsien-i, it is possible, however, that the turning movement, which the reports are current, is in progress. In some operations the Japanese have immense advantage of several hours' time of supply, to which is now added the Sianlin road, while the Russian army necessarily is dependent on one base and one line of communication, and therefore may easily be outflanked.

In the grand army order is being brought out of chaos with remarkable regularity. The plain in front of the pass, which, on March 11, seemed like a vast sea of water, has been cleared of trees, and today the same soldiers who, on March 10, became a terroristic, disorganized mass of army at a few shots from a little detachment of Japanese, or who even fled in panic, are running in all directions as they ran at the more hopeless retreat.

of Japanese cavalry, are now rushing along the camp fires with no courage, ready to oppose with stubborn resistance an attack on the pass.

FRENCH BARKERS REVOLT

They Draw the Purse Strings Tight—ly Against Russia.

While the proposed loan has only been "postponed," that is regarded as tantamount to refusal.

London, March 15.—The revolt of the French bankers is considered by the London newspapers as the most hopeful and important news of the day, promising an early conclusion of peace between Russia and Japan. Apparently the proposed loan has not been absolutely refused, but only "postponed." This, however, is regarded here as being tantamount to a refusal, and is expected to speak for the Russian war party even than Kuropatkin's reverse at Mukden. It is the general belief that by the sale of the state's chief executive, in a white-hot temper, immediately accepted the challenge.

Reports are current here that Japan will now demand an indemnity of between $500,000,000 and $750,000,000.

MISSOURI GOVERNOR ANGRY.

The State Senate Defeated His Pet Measure, Aloud at a Senate Session.

Jefferson City, Mo., March 15.—The senate has thrown down the gauntlet to Gov. Joseph W. Folk by defeating his anti-bribery witness bill, 14 to 13, which the state's chief executive, in a white-hot temper, immediately accepted the challenge.

"This question will be a vital issue two years hence," the governor declared, "and if I can prevent it one senator who voted against the bill will come back to the state."

The proposed law grew out of the experience of Gov. Folk while circuit attorney of St. Louis, in securing testimony in trials of cases of men who had accepted bribes.

Those who voted for the bill were: Clark of Jackson, Hildes of Hickman, Hildes of Henry, Ely of Dunklin, Fields of Iliad, Gilmore of Jackson, Hicks of Saline, McCall of Lawrence, Varner of Buchanan, Wormald of Clay and Young of Texas.

Those opposed to the passage were: Senators Bauman of St. Louis, Buchanan of Boone, Curran of Clark, Howell of Lincoln, Powers of Crawford, Harris of Hamilton, McMiller of Montgomery, McMillan of Greene, and Jasper Morton of Ray. Nelson of St. Louis, Peck of Atchison, Sartorius of St. Louis, and Walker of Boone.

After the result was announced, Senators Bradley of St. Francis and Avery of Lincoln, on motion, were allowed to have their vote recorded as FAVOR OF SENATOR BATE.

Impressive, Though Simply, Services Marked the Interment of William B. Hale.

Nashville, Tenn., March 15.—Impressive, though simple, services, participated in by the legislature, supreme court, members of the cabinet, and other prominent citizens and the Washington congressional escort, were held in the hall of the house of representatives over the remains of the late United States Senator William B. Hale.

The religious services were conducted by Rev. D. J. Kelly, who was assisted by Rev. N. B. Forest, and Rev. Lansing Burrows, a confederate veteran.

ST. LOUIS NEGRO WANTS PIE.

J. Milton Turner, of St. Louis, Introduced to the President, and Wants Something.

Washington, March 15.—J. Milton Turner, a St. Louis negro, is advanced by Representative Darrault as a candidate for recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia.

Barthold introduced Turner to the president, and told Mr. Roosevelt that Turner is "one of the most prominent negroes in the country, and a man of great ability and character."

Candidates for the position sought by Turner are numerous, and it is thought he has little chance.

DRAWING OF PARTY LINES.

Picture of the Democratic Party in the Senate Now Almost a Foregone Conclusion.

Washington, March 15.—The discussion of the Democratic party, in executive session of the senate, Tuesday, resulted in the drawing of party lines. The democrats who have been reported as likely to support the treaty will return to the fold, it is said, and on each side of the chamber it is admitted there is little prospect that the convention will be ratified.

Conspiracy at Seoul.

London, March 15.—The Times correspondent at Tokyo reports that a conspiracy has been discovered at Seoul to induce the emperor of Korea to repudiate the Japanese convention and seek refuge in a foreign location. The conspirators, it is said, have been arrested.

PHOSPHOROUS

CAUSES A FIRE

Earlington Iron Works Narrowly Escapes Destruction.

FORTUNATE DISCOVERY AT SUPPER TIME

A fire occurred from a very unusual cause yesterday evening shortly after quitting time at the Earlington Iron Works foundry. It was caused by a trunk can of phosphorous which had been lost for several days and had defied all the efforts of Mike Hanna to locate the dangerous chemical about the place. Young John Hanna was the hero who discovered the incipient fire a few very minutes after all hands had left the works. He emptied the contents of a bucket of wash water into the corner where the "little blue blazes were erupting." This checked the fire but spread the phosphorous all about on the adjacent wooden sides of the building. He then gave the alarm and Mike and others hurried in.

The fame-filled place like a fog and made work and breathing difficult but they succeeded in stopping the fire without calling on the fire department. Mike had kept the can, which contained a half pound of phosphorous, submerged in a bucket of water which he had hanging in the foundry. Someone who did not know its contents emptied the bucket into a corner where some rubbish had accumulated. Mike Hanna Sr. is away on a business trip. There is no insurance on this plant and the loss would have fallen heavily as a good enterprise.

Mike will hang his can in a thorn tree outside hereafter. The chemical is used in smelting brass.

MONTH'S MIND MASS.

Requiem Service Celebrated Yesterday in Memory of Father Cosmen.

The Month's Mind Mass, or 30th day requiem service held in accordance with the liturgy of the Catholic church was celebrated Wednesday morning at the Immaculate Conception church for the repose of the soul of the saintly Father Cosmen.

Services began at 8 o'clock and the building was well filled with the faithful. Mass was read by Rev. Father Lynch, assisted by Rev. Robert M. Morganfield, who acted as deacon, and Rev. Louis Herndon, who acted as sub-deacon. Rev. Father Lynch was master of ceremonies.

The music consisted of the solemn Gregorian chant, intoned alternately by the priests present and the members of the congregation and choir, keeping with the ecclesiastical requirements for plain song. This feature of the service was in harmony with the spirit inculcated so seasonally and successfully by Father Cosmen during his life. It was indeed a fitting tribute to a man who had always manifested a keen appreciation of the church's own music.

After the solemn mass had been sung, the absolution was given by the officiating clergy.

Rev. Father Lynch delivered the eulogy and paid a beautiful tribute to the virtues of the deceased pastor. He spoke at length of the humble congregation and enumerated the almost insurmountable difficulties that were gradually overcome by the incessant labors and zeal of Father Cosmen and the hearty co-operation of the faithful flock.

Rev. Father Lynch speaking of the personality of Father Cosmen showed how faithfully the deceased priest had conformed with the requirements of the priestly office. "Though endowed with extraordinary gifts of heart and mind, he ever strove to imitate the divine model of the priesthood, Jesus Christ, and made humility the predominating virtue of his life."

Besides the acting pastor, Father Walsh, the following priests were present:

Revs. Thomas Hayes, of Bowling Green, Edward Lynch, of Henderson, Kellerman, of Uniontown, B. A. Cunningham, of Louisville, Robert O'Connell, of Henderson, Louis Herndon, of Boone, John Kalisher, of St. Vincent, and B. J. Boland, of Somerset.

COL. E. G. SEBREE

Has Applied for Appointment as Revenue Collector at Owensboro.

From one of his home papers, the Henderson Gleaner, comes the following quotation which speaks most highly of Col. E. G. Sebree, one of the most popular and universally known men in Kentucky:

"Our fellow-townsmen, the Hon. E. G. Sebree, has filed an application with the authorities at Washington to be appointed collector for this district."

"It gives the Gleaner great pleasure to bear testimony to the personal worth and attractive social qualities of Col. Sebree. As a lawyer and practitioner he occupies a high position among his professional brethren. For years past he has been attorney for the St. Bernard Coal Co. at Earlington. The multifarious and exacting demands of that corporation have all but monopolized the professional labor of Col. Sebree, leaving him but scant time to devote to the general practice of his profession."

Col. Sebree was born April 30, 1857, on his father's farm near Trenton in Todd county. He attended the village schools and in 1875 entered Bethany college, West Virginia, from which he graduated in the class of 1877 as valedictorian. He worked in the Henderson circuit clerk's office under David Banks and at the same time studied law under S. B. Vance until the fall of '78. He then entered the Louisville Law School and graduated in one term in the year 1880. In the same year he began the practice of law in Hopkinsville, and in the following year formed a partnership with Hon. John Feland, Jr.

"In 1888 he was elected county attorney of Christian county and served one term. He then served in the state legislature in 1887 and '89 being nominated and elected without opposition. At the close of the session he came to Henderson and opened a law office. Four years later he was a delegate from the Second congressional district to the national republican convention and two years later was nominee of his party for congressman from the Second congressional district in Kentucky. He is normally a democratic district and the majority given the democratic nominees is always large. Col. Sebree was beaten by only 2,800 votes in this campaign. That Col. Sebree took a position against free silver, the first time it was made an issue in this state. Last year he was again delegate to the national convention of his party."

Yo ng-Kline.

Miss Francis Young and W. H. Kline, both of this city, were united in marriage at the residence of Mrs. Henry Rogers last night. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends by Rev. Bell, of Greenville. Miss Young is a native of Virginia and comes of a good family. She had for sometime past taught the Hicks school and has made many and warm friends in Earlington. Mr. Kline is rising young, railroad man and stands well with his superior officers. Toss Ben join their other friends in good wishes for future felicity.

Old Citizens Die at Madisonville.

Capt. Jno. Christy, one of the pioneer citizens of Madisonville, died Wednesday. He had been in bad health for a long time and was quite an aged man. He was a brother of Mrs. Kate Woolford, and Miss Joe Gibson. Capt. Christy was one of the best known men in his native city. He was a Captain in the army of the Southern Confederacy and fought in the four years of the war. He was buried today by the United Confederate Union Camp 628 at the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Brasher's Real Estate Column.

All Kinds of Real Estate Bought and Sold or Exchanged by John B. Brasher, Madisonville, Ky.

TIMBERED LANDS A SPECIALTY.

Parties desiring to purchase a city home in Madisonville or a farm in Hopkins or adjoining counties, or parties desiring to sell their kind of property, will find it to their interest to call at the County Clerk's office in Madisonville, Ky., before making a deal with other parties. I always have a variety of houses and lots on hand and a variety of farm lands which I will sell at reasonable prices and on easy terms. If it does not suit parties to buy, I will trade property on a fair basis of exchange. I have at all times some persons desiring different kinds of homes and farm lands for sale, consequently I am constantly in the market for all kinds of real estates, and am in position to make any sized trade or to handle any kind of a deal. I will buy and pay cash for timbered lands at reasonable prices, so if you are in the market to buy or sell, come to see me and I can accommodate you.

Persons desiring to locate in Madisonville or Hopkins county can not over estimate the advantages they will find here over other towns and counties in the State. The farm lands of Hopkins county will average well with other lands of Kentucky. The lands of Hopkins county will be raised in any other county in the State—and we have here a ready cash market for every thing the farmer has to sell. The cash values of our county every year that other counties have to wait for their crops, is principally left in the country and is spent with our farmers and business men. We have one of the finest schools in Madisonville in the State, and it is only a question of a short time when we will have a new school. There are two more railroads running through Hopkins county. Property here is situated on advancing and will continue to advance, therefore, parties desiring to locate in this county will act wisely to do so now.

I now own the following pieces of property which I will sell at the prices named on easy terms:

No. 1.—A splendid lot 168 feet wide and 224 feet long, with a good story frame house, with a northwestern portion of Madisonville. Said lot is beautifully situated in the "White Settlement" of said town, with a street on three sides of it, plenty of shade trees and fruit trees in the yard of the house. The building thereon is a nine room, two story dwelling, in good repair; the rooms are large and have good grates and mantels, good water, sewer, room, new brick milk house and all other necessary outbuildings. Price $2,500. This is the best piece of property in Madisonville and cannot be duplicated for $3,000. I drew this property in the distribution of lots in the "White Settlement" in addition to Madisonville is the reason I can sell it so cheap. Cottages with fruit trees and a small lot are bringing more money in Madisonville than I ask for this two story dwelling and house. If you want to buy a home do not fail to see this property before making a purchase.

No. 2.—A good lot 78 1/2 feet wide and 224 feet long, with a frame cottage thereon, situated on South Main street opposite my residence; said lot is well improved with a good cellar; the rooms are nicely papered and are finished in hard wood; there is a good cistern, fruit trees and shrubbery; good cistern, good ground spot, stable, smoke house, outbuilding, etc. Price $2,500. This property is cheap, as vacant lots are selling at this time for $100.00 per acre, for more money than I ask for this splendid house and lot.

No. 3.—A nice lot 76 feet wide on Broadway street, running through Seminary street to Dupuy street, with a new two story frame house thereon, with 7 rooms nicely plastered, bath room and pantry and six cabinet mantels; fine cistern, stable and buggy house, coal house and wood house; fence all new and good brick walks around the building. Price $3,500.

No. 4.—A fine corner lot with five room brick cottage thereon, near the magnificent home of C. B. Tate, overlooking the city. Price $2,500.

No. 5.—A new brick lot 150 feet wide and 224 feet long, with a new two story frame house thereon, with 7 rooms nicely plastered, bath room and pantry and six cabinet mantels; fine cistern, stable and buggy house, coal house and wood house; fence all new and good brick walks around the building. Price $3,500.

No. 6.—A new brick lot 150 feet wide and 224 feet long, with a new two story frame house thereon, with 7 rooms nicely plastered, bath room and pantry and six cabinet mantels; fine cistern, stable and buggy house, coal house and wood house; fence all new and good brick walks around the building. Price $3,500.

Dairy Dole.

The majority of farmers should depend upon raising their own dairy stock. This should be done more cheaply than cows could be bought, especially at the present time. And the advantage is that heifers can be raised in a proper manner and adapted to the farm, which will not come from frequent changes in ownership.

During a recent blizzard in New Jersey a lawyer paid $200 for two quarts of milk and an equal amount of cream for his baby.

The milk industry is greater than the steel. The steel industry is reported to represent $70,000,000, while that of milk exceeds $600,000. The milk stations along the Mohawk valley, in New York, recently cut the price of milk 12 cents per hundred pounds. It is reported that farms are declining in value there because of the exactions of the produce companies who pay low rates for farm produce and control supplies at high prices.

Prof. L. H. Bailey, of Cornell University says: "Dairying is a kind of manufacturing enterprise. The barn is the factory. Cows are the machines. Hay and silage and concentrated feeds are the raw materials. The factory should run all the year. The barns must be adapted to the health and comfort of the animals, not merely a place in which to keep them or store them for a half a year."

In summer the churning should be done at as low temperature as will permit the cream to form butter at the least cost of time and labor. The temperature ranges from 55 to 65 degrees, according to conditions. When the cream is most oily, as in summer, the lower temperature is better, while in winter the higher temperature may be an advantage. There is no exact temperature for churning, as cream varies and only observation will enable one to arrive at a full understanding of the requirements. Use a thermometer and in a few days much will have been accomplished in learning of the proper temperature.

Have measures and scales, learn how much difference there is in the yield of your cows, and then figure out the loss in keeping a poor cow. Do not take some other man's word for it, but do it yourself; then you will be convinced.

If the cut worms are likely to be troublesome poison them before planting corn. It is no use doing so after the corn is up, they win prefer the corn to the poison. Mix Paris green with bran moistened so it will stick together in balls, or dip bunches of green clover in Paris green mixed in water and drop these over the field.

Helpful Hints.

Rainwater and soap will remove machine grease from washable fabric.

Boiling starch is much improved by the addition of sperm or salt, or both, or a little gum arabic dissolved.

Use soapy water for making starch. It will give a prettier gloss and keep the iron from sticking.

If by chance you burn the top of your cake, take your large grater and gently grate off the burned part. Brush crumbs off before icing cake.

Salt will curdle new milk. In preparing porridge, gravies, etc., salt should not be added until the dish is prepared.

Paint stains that are old and dry may be removed from cotton or woollen goods with chlorotone. First cover the spot with olive oil or butter.

When you black your stores, use strong, clear coffee to moisten the blacking and the resulting polish will please you.

If a foreign substance, such as a fish bone, should be lodged in the throat, speedy relief can be obtained by swallowing a raw egg, as it will usually detach such obstructions.

If the fat in the frying pan is hot before you are ready for it, put in a crust of bread; it will not burn as long as it has something to do.

Red pepper pods or a few pieces of charcoal thrown into the pot in which onions or cabbage is boiling will prevent the unpleasant odor.

When your vinegar cruet or perfume bottle becomes cloudy and stained, pour into them a little freshly made tea (made as for the table), a little hot water and a tiny piece of soap. Shake well and the stains will disappear.

Poultry Pickings.

A corner in eggs is a cheerful announcement. After the eggs have been "held up," in the corner for a week or two, will they be marketed as "strictly fresh?"

Moth balls placed in the nests ought to fix any prowling vermin that might decide to start housekeeping therein. A penny's worth in each nest ought to be sufficient.

The breeding birds should have a little more elbow grease than the remainder of the flock. Each bird should have not less than ten square feet of house room.

Bone is one of the best substances that can be fed to the hens. Ground or broken bone is highly reliable. It not only contains lime for shells, but also nitrogen and the phosphates. It should be kept before the hens in boxes all the time.

The man who places a porcelain nest egg in the nest when the temperature is down to zero causes the hen that goes on the nest not only the loss of a large amount of animal heat to warm the cold substance, but also incurs upon her a task which is severe and cruel.

A frosted comb is a source of great pain to a bird. It should be treated as tenderly as you would your own frozen ears. If taken in time, apply snow or ice cold water, wiping dry after the parts thaw, then apply glycerine once a day. Any substance that irritates the parts, such as spirits of turpentine, alcohol, etc., simply causes excruciating pain. The best treatment is to keep the comb moist and keep the bird dry.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Theford's Black-Draught a great medicine for liver troubles. I cured my own case after he had spent three months. I feel the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Tishomingo, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught, and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine cleans the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to equal it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Birmingham, Ill.

quarters where cold drafts will not reach them.

What is said to be the largest egg farm in the world is owned and managed by C. E. L. Hayward at Hancock, N. H. It has at this time over 400 hens kept in 600 small houses, fourteen in each. The hens are never allowed outside their little eight-foot square coops, and are never fed green feed, contrary to the teaching of all other poultry feeders. Each hen gets about a quarter of a pound per day of beef scraps, gluten, hominy feed, wheat, etc., with a little salt, ground shells, grit and charcoal, and plenty of clean water.

By a series of experiments it has been discovered that the feeding of green cut bone increases production of eggs. Different parts of ordinary market bones upon analysis were found to contain in abundance the ingredients which go to make up the growing chick, and in wonderfully close proportions the different parts of the complete egg. The lean meat and gristle form the white of the egg and about 16 per cent. of the yolk. The marrow and other fat on the bones supply the remainder of the yolk, while the lime phosphates in the bone yield all the necessary lime salts for the shell and the requisite phosphates for interior of the egg.
